Kenneth Willoughby

District President Far Northern

In October 2022, Kenneth Willoughby joined RSL Queensland's State Council of District Presidents as District President, Far Northern District.

Kenneth served in the RAAF from 1970 to 1992, initially as an Airfield Defence Guard before re-mustering to Service Police upon his return from Vietnam. He later qualified as an RAAF Police Investigator specialising in criminal investigations and counter-intelligence. He also served in Malaysia on two separate postings.

After leaving the RAAF, Kenneth worked in the mining industry in Papua New Guinea (PNG), first as a Security Training Officer then as an Occupational Health and Safety (OH&S) Coordinator. Due to his police training in the RAAF, he was appointed as a PNG Reserve Police Officer. After leaving PNG he worked as an OH&S Manager for an engineering and employment hire company in Cairns.

Kenneth has been a member of many RSL Sub Branches including Townsville, Cairns, Gordonvale, Malanda (eight years as Secretary) and now Herberton. He has held the positions of Vice President and Deputy President for Far Northern District.
